

HAQ Publishing Limited

Founded in 1982, HAQ Publishing Limited began by producing Chamber of Commerce Business Directories.

With the ongoing success of these publications, we decided to utilize our expertise and branch out into the public market, producing niche directories. We first launched the Classic, Veteran and Vintage Car Directory, swiftly followed by 8 national specialist directory titles, all printed as glossy colour A4 hard copy magazine directories. With the onset of global web and internet technology, we then supported each hard copy directory with its own website, giving all our advertisers the benefit of 24 hour exposure at a very cost effective price. (Customers also have an option to self-edit their web entry, an invaluable facility for many of our customer).

Following months of negotiation, our directories were accepted, and are now distributed through WH Smiths and over 1,600 newsagents. This distribution is further supported by our all-year-round attendance at shows and exhibitions throughout the UK, where thousands more of our directories reach businesses, the general public and future customers of our customers!
